Q: How do you attract miracles?

A: It's simple. When I use A Prayer That Always Works, I ask for miracles! I can have 20 different things on my list that I include in the prayer and at the end, I would ask for miracles! Once I experienced what it is asking for miracles and getting them, it became sort of an addition. I even began to study and investigate how to get miracles. When I prayed for certain situations where miracles would seem like an only solution and I got those miracles, I quickly understood that getting miracles it is not a fairy tale. So, I just ask for them in a prayer! My other way to get miracles is to feel that me (in your case you) is a miracle, this moment is a miracle, everything is a miracle and whole Universe is a miracle. I also catch myself trying not to engage in complaints when others complain. Because complaining takes you away from miracles. When others complain, I clear. I don't clear on them. I clear on me that somehow, I hear the complaints. Remember about 100% responsibility and that outer World including others is a projection? So, what I do is take full responsibility that I hear a complaint and I clear. Another way I attract miracles is practicing gratitude. Sometimes it is still hard and sometimes I feel even naive but those feelings are blockages. We can always be grateful for something. Another way I attract miracles is I choose to be aware what I think about. When I get negative thoughts, I make choices. I choose to inject positivity! So, when I get negative thoughts, I begin to choose to think about something positive, like gratitude. Finally, if problems get bad, I use all known means to solve them and I begin to seek and create other methods. Sometimes, I modify methods or even simplify them. I know many more methods to attract miracles left and right because I like this subject a lot! This is something I am very passionate about!!! And I am telling you methods that I do lately! And of course, I use A Prayer That Always Works! All the time!!!

Q: What are the different forms of interferences and how to remove them?

Oh, God, what a question! Thank you! I don't even know where to begin to answer it. I will begin somewhere. As you know it, today the World is not easy. Yet, as you know it, it doesn't have to be. I already know it. When I say “not easy”, I mean that it is complex. We experience so many things. And with such experiences come experiences of interferences. When I think about forms of interferences, these are the forms of interferences that come to my mind: self-interferences, astrological, ancestral, Karmic, past-life, negative influences, weather can cause interferences, radio waves, unidentified interferences, metaphysical interferences, interferences from people that surround us – even our loved ones, interferences from space, locational interferences, conscious and subconscious interferences, mental and emotional interferences... There are so many forms of interferences! How do I remove them? Well, again, I realize that nothing is independent outside of me. I take 100% responsibility and clear. I used to try to identify where the interference is coming from but the more I clear, the less I do it. It just doesn't matter anymore. What matters is that I clear so I am free from interferences. I also realize that some interferences are good. For example, some are more like warning signs. So, what I do is I clear. Sure, I use other methods too like Remote Influencing, Magick, using logic, keeping my emotions up. All this helps! Sometimes, I slow down and ask: “What is this interference is trying to tell me?”. Sometimes there is a learning lesson there. But what I primarily do is I clear. I clear on emotions a lot because interferences are aimed to trigger emotions like frustration, anger, impatience... I let these emotions come up and I clear.

Q: Why and how this prayer (A Prayer That Always Works) works in deeper details?

A: Well, I certainly put a lot of details and explanations in this ebook. But if you want to go deeper, why don't we go to the real depth right away? At the deep, deep level, things are simple. Imagine that there is a part of you without limitations... Anything is possible there... It is your connection to God and it is a God part of you. When you do A Prayer That Always Works, it takes you to... Read more >>>
